We Must join the Red Cross

If there was ever a time in the history of this country that we Americans should realize that we are "our brother's keeper"—that time is RIGHT NOW. Don't wait for one of the Red Cross campaigners to come to you—but go to them—the spirit of "GIVE" is in the air.

There is Certainly Your Preference Among these Coats, Priced $12.50, $15, $17.50, $25.00

Come early for your coat! Here is what you will find. Scores of beautiful coats in the season's successful styles. They're as attractive in model material and tailoring as they are in price. Great warmth without weight affairs in which one can smuggle so smartly—with "lines" and "swing" that characterize the new coats. Soft, fleecy velours, fluffy lambs wool, silky plush, new silvertones, crystal cloth, novelty mixtures. Luxurious coats, picturesque in line and rich in finish. Belts play an important part and there are many, many kinds. Waist lines are normal or high; pleats, buttons and buckles are used in more ways than one could imagine.

IN MEMORIAM

This marble is everlasting. So is the memory of Edith Cavell, whose statue is shown here as it stands in a French hospital.

HOULT

Golden Hoult is soliciting members for the Fairmont Chapter of the Red Cross, in this community and the people of Hoult are responding with their usual patriotic spirit and it looks as if about everyone in the community would soon be wearing the Red Cross button.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Phillips of Philippi spent Sunday at the home of D. E. Snider.

Miss Gladys Watkins who teaches school at Goose Creek spent the week end at her home here. She had as a guest Miss Alma Kelley of Lewells who accompanied her home.

E. church, South, at Fairmont, Thursday night and all report a good time although the crowd was small on account of several other things in the way of church work that the members wished to attend.

Several of the young people of Hoult attended the "Alice in Wonderland" movie show at the Grand and the Fairmont High school Friday evening.

Law of Booty.

The law of booty governing the Israelites is given in Numbers 31:20-47. Booty consisted of captives of both sexes, cattle and whatever a captured city might contain, especially metallic treasures.

MONONGAH

"Intolerance."

Approximately 100 people were on the car returning to Monongah yesterday evening after "Intolerance," the motion picture now, running at the Grand. The large majority of these were from Monongah.

Returned.

Miss Ruth Keim has returned from Buckhannon after a short visit with relatives there and has resumed work at the local millinery store. Miss Keim takes the place left vacant by Miss Carrie Smith, who was called away on account of the illness of her sister.

Bridge Dangerous.

The bridge crossing Booth's creek from the central part of Monongah to Brookdale is in a most dangerous condition, especially to small children who cross the bridge alone. For at least forty feet, where the bridge is the highest, there is no iron railing on either side. A child falling from the bridge would be injured for life. The bridge has been that way for some time and as yet no repair has been made.

Personals.

Mrs. Dave Smith was among the Monongah social callers out of town this morning.

James Price motored to Fairmont yesterday evening to attend "Intolerance."
